SOCIAL LIFEIN SENECA

The miscellaneous tendered Miss Carry Hunter, by C. H. Ellison and Miss Sleigh in their private apartment at the Oconee Inn was one of the most delightful social occasions of the sea

The decoration scheme of pink and white was carried throughout, the centerpiece being carnations. Mrs. Ellison and Miss Sleigh met the guests in the hotel parlor and received them in their gracious way. Cards were then presented and each one was asked to write some advice, a prophesy and a wish for the bride-to-be, at the dinner table there cards were read out by Mrs. C. W. Ballinger.

A delightful salad course of ice ream, cake and mints were served. While the guests were at the table little Clarence Ellison appeared bear-ing a large barket laden with "things a girl would like," This proved to be a handsome and varied collection of dainty and useful gifts for the future

The music furnished by Misses Norman, Moore and Jennings added much to the pleasures of the event. Those present were: Miss Hunter, Miss Sue Ellen Hunter, Miss Nina Carpenter, of Greenville, Miss Hamilton, Miss Lucille Hamilton, Mrs. C. B. Smith Mrs. G. W. will place your money for you secured by first mortgages on Real Estate at not over 60 per cent. valuation. All expenses to be paid by the borrower. The mortgages to bear 8 per cent interest. We will guarantee you that the property mortgaged in a first mortgage against the lands covered and that it is free from incumbrance and that the title to the property is perfect.

For further information call at our office in store room of Bleckley Building below the Peoples Bank. Also watch for list of amounts wanted with number of acres as security, valuation, etc.

Pick out the amount you want and secure same as we do not intend to confine ourselves to Anderson County alone in placing these desirable loans.

There has been a great need here for the business we propose to engage in, a place where the borrower and the parties who have money to loan can place their money without waiting.

Come to see us at once whether you have money to loan or want to borrow and we will soon get the machinery working to place arge amounts in the near future Our president, Mr. J. J. Fretvell, has ridden twice the distance around the world in this county and knows the location and value of Anderson County lands better than others who have had no experience in this line of work. Where we have any doubt as to valuations we will send one of our agents to inspect and report on the property.
